Special Magistrate's Court.

Read letter No.G.16548, dated the 20th idem from the Chief Secretary to Government, informing that the Government have after careful consideration, ordered the establishment of a special - Magistrate's Court at Tarikere in preference to Narasimharajapur and that hardship complained of has been very much minimised by the establishment of Bench Courts at Narasimharajapura, Koppa and Sringeri.

Resolution:- The Association begs to point out that the grievances in the matter are real, in as much as the litigants living in the interior of Koppa and Sringeri Taluks have at present to travel a long way off at great hardship to them and that their hardships have been in no way minimised, but on the other hand they have multiplied. They respectfully renew their request for the location of a special magistrate's court at Narasimharajapur - the convenient centre for the Malnad Taluks of Koppa and Sringeri. They further beg to point out that the Bench Courts now established are unable to meet the situation and that their number may be increased. The establishment of one such Court at Hariharpur deserves early consideration of Government.
